North "Gets in the Spirit" at homecoming

On Friday night, October 17, North High students, faculty, and alumni gathered in the stadium to await the homecoming activities. Some came to see the football game, some came to see the crowning of the King and Queen, and others came to see the floats. Most people, though, drawn by the magic of homecoming, came to share in the nights' gala of activities. Tension mounted as everyone anxiously awaited the naming of the homecoming King and Queen. Angel Reynoso and Molly Ryan, the newly elected homecoming royalty, reigned over the halftime activities and the homecoming dance. The evening ended on a happy note when the Mustangs scored a galloping victory over Tolleson.

The Student Executive Committee, led by Jenny Steele, consists of the Student Body Officers and Class Presidents. Jenny, one of North's first female presidents in several years, spread her enthusiasm throughout the year. Molly Ryan, vice president, also served as chairman of the House Of Representatives. Brenda Stokes, corresponding secretary, was North's good will ambassador along with keeping records of all clubs. Roz Keith, recording secretary, was also chairman of Rallies and Traditions. Nickie Cascairo served as treasurer and chairman of the Elections Committee. The Activities Coordinators, Christy Wyles and Loretta Rivera, spent many hours planning student activities: Homecoming, Spirit Week, King and Queen of Courts, Christmas Picnic. This year's Exec, sponsored by Murph, made many decisions that helped to make the 1975-76 year interesting and worthwhile to North High students.

This year's Twirlers, nicknamed the "Silver Spinners", practiced many hours on their routines to improve the quality of their performances at pep assemblies, football games, and competition at ASU and U of A. The girls choreographed all their own routines which were very original and spirited. Debbie and Brenda, veterans on the line, also performed feature solo routines. The Twirlers unanimously agreed that "getting into the spirit" at North was really worthwhile and a lot of fun!

Mustang Band goes to California

A group that was very active on the campus this year was the band. Under the direction of Mr. Robert Brewer, the band had many performances through the year. During football season, the band put on pre-game and halftime shows for the audience. Concerts were given in the auditorium, and the pep band played for the general assemblies during the year. Band members participated in many fund-raising projects such as soap, candy, and cheese sales. The money from these sales helped to cover the costs of the band competitions held during the year.

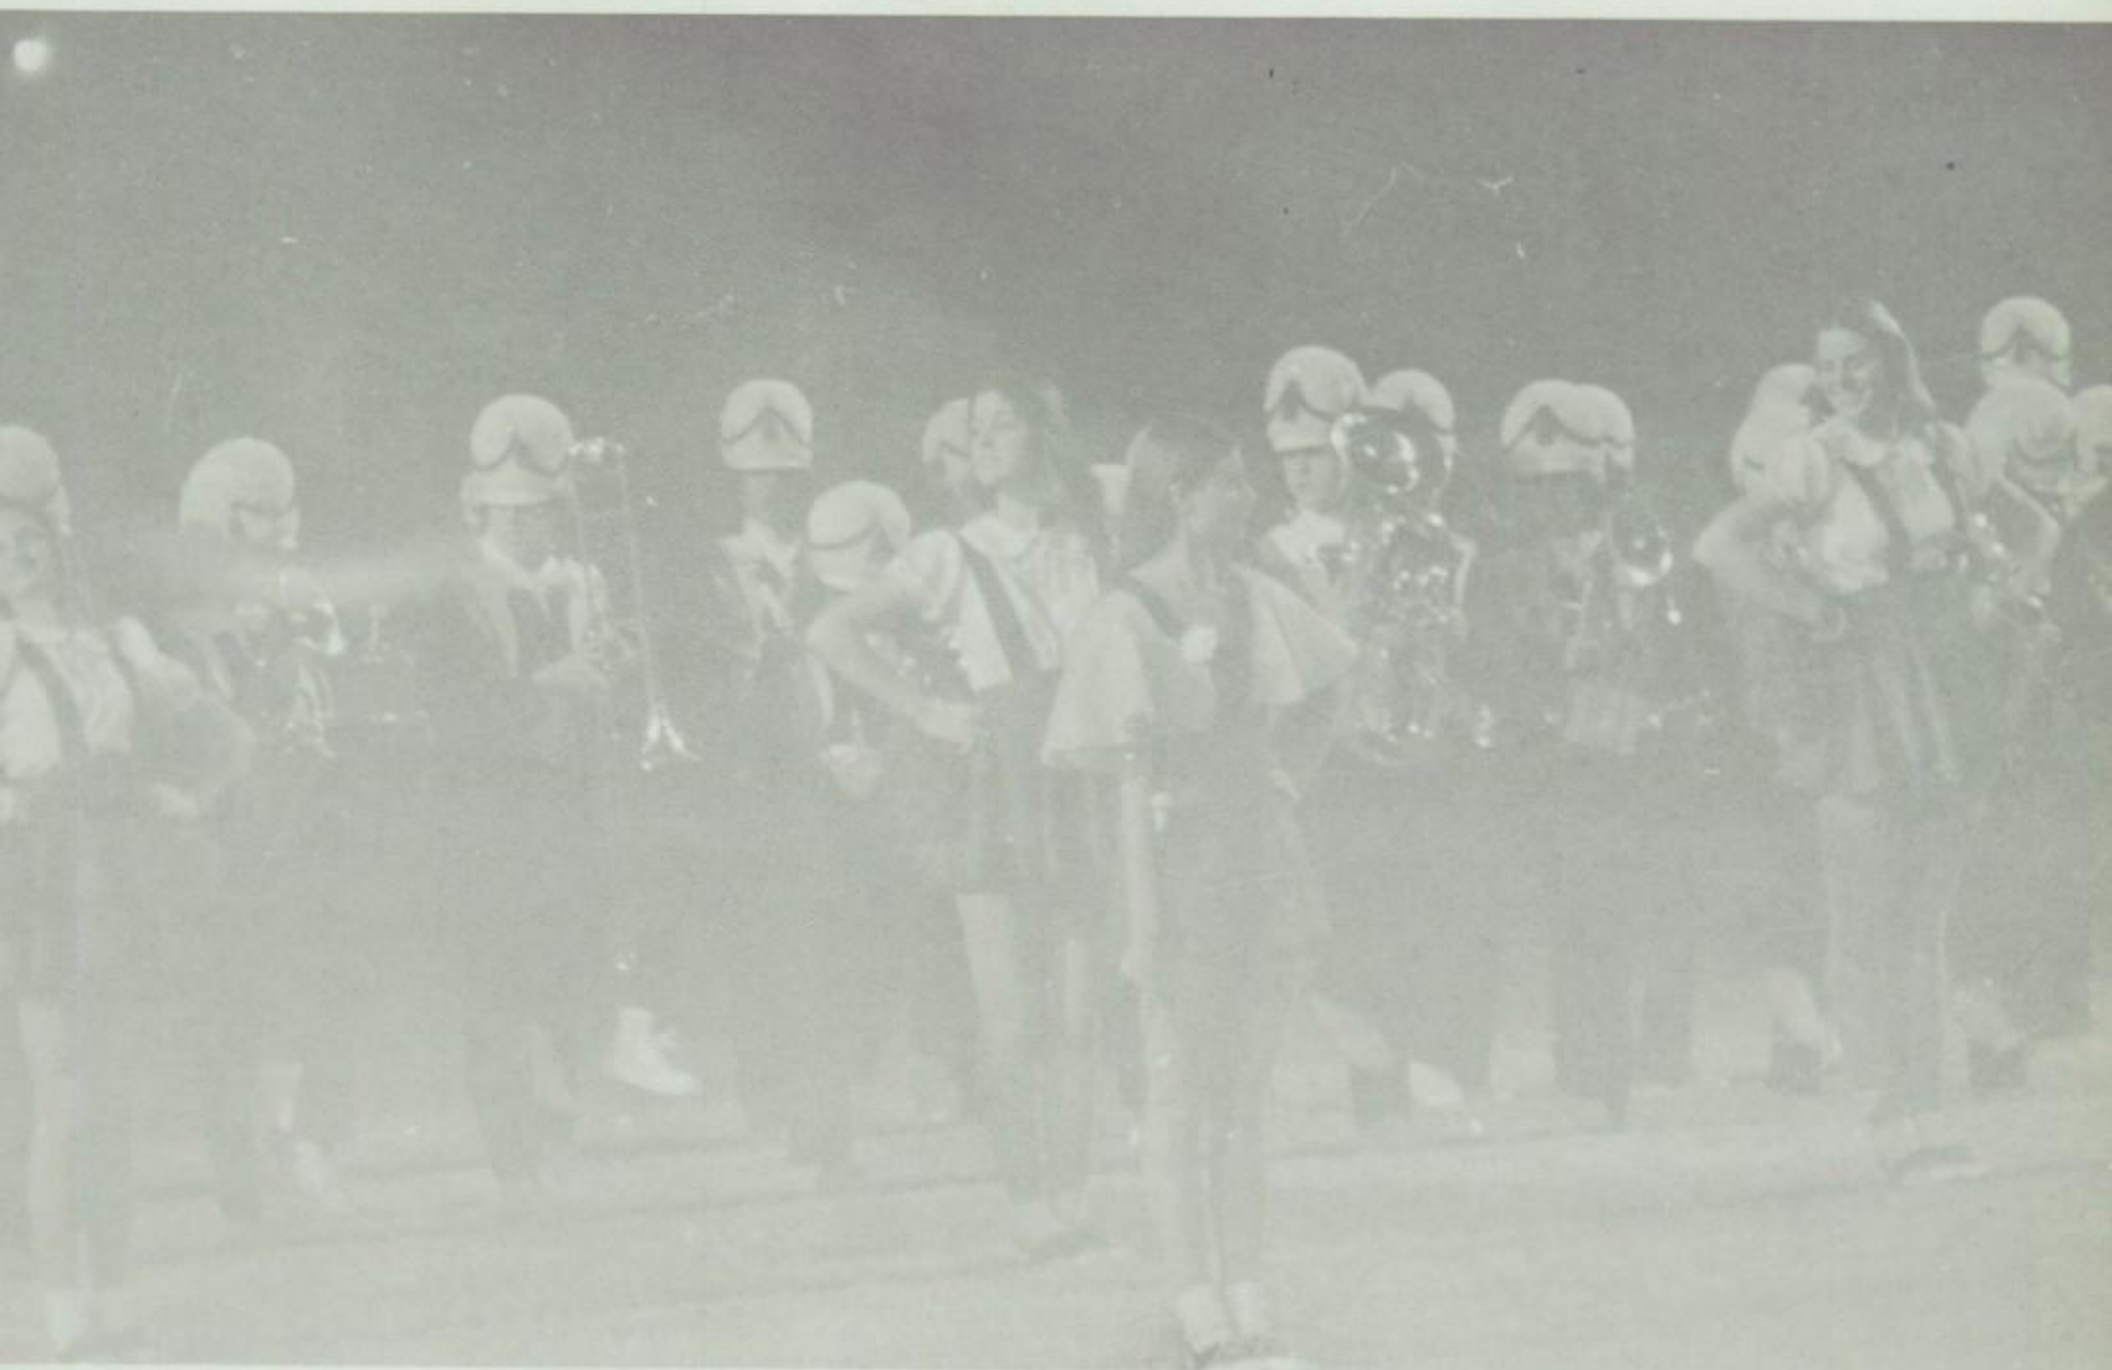

During second semester, the Band went to California. The Band was led by drum major Ken Hunter. Ken added a flash to every halftime with his opening back flip.

Mrs. Brooks was the sponser for the Black Studies group. Black Studies worked to put on an assembly during Black Heritage Week.

Clubs encourage athletics

Spikettes provided cheer and support this year for North's Cross Country runners. Mrs. Norman acted as the adult advisor, and Mr. Don Tate, the Cross Country coach, was the sponsor. Spikettes served refreshments to the runners after their meets.

The Bike Club was organized this year. The group took weekend breakfast rides. Each member provided his own bicycle and "accessories" including, in one case, a CB radio. The members of this club enjoyed good exercise, food and fun.

Drama Club gets new sponsor

With no drama classes offered this year, and no drama teacher on campus, Mrs. Wheelwright, secretary in the Career Center, consented to sponsor the club. Under her guidance and with much cooperation from the club members, the group presented "You Were Born on a Rotten Day" first semester. This was a well-received comedy performed in the auditorium. The Little Theater was serving as a reference library and was not available to the club.

Mr. Mike Byron, a drama teacher who taught only English classes second semester, took over sponsorship of the club at the mid-term. The Little Theater group returned to their Little Theater to produce "Antigone."

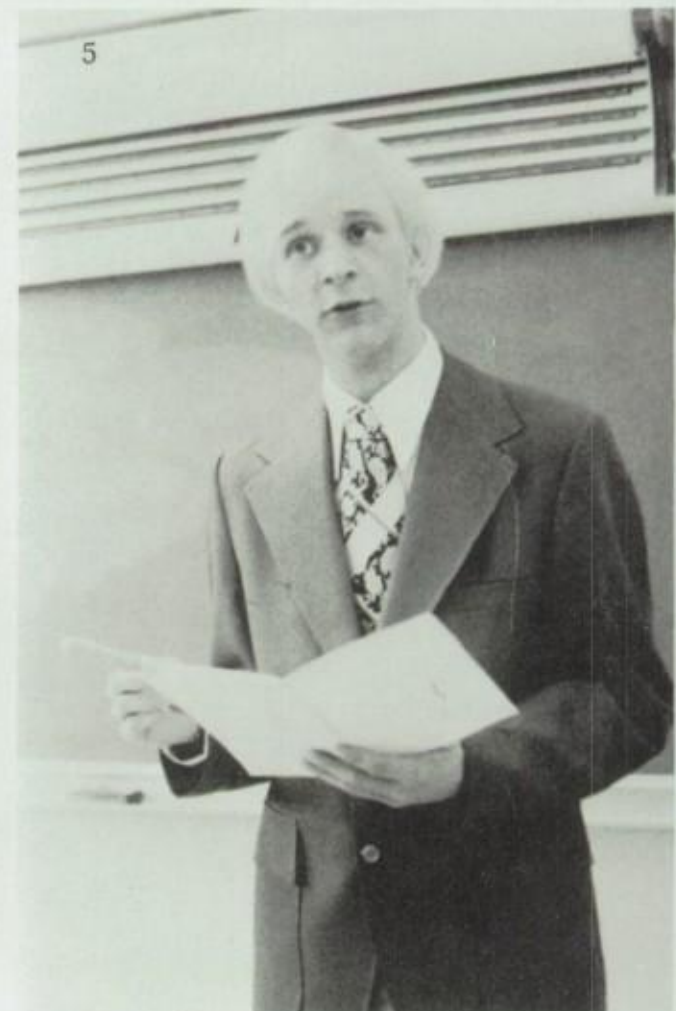

The North Forty

Forensic Activity at North High School means interscholastic competition among all Arizona high schools. The "Speech team" competes in categories ranging from public speaking to interpretative readings. They are: Extemporaneous Speaking, Original Oratory, Debate, Serious Prose, Humor, Poetry, and Drama.

An addition to actual speech tournaments, "the North 40" is active in oratorical contests, service club competition, and community service club.

Membership on the speech team usually numbers between 40 and 50 members, all of them play an important role to the success of the team.

In the past 6 years, the North High Mustangs have been consistently rated as one of the top 5 teams in the state of Arizona "KEEP ON TALKIN".

Hoofbeats records The Spirit of '76

Fed by Jack-in-the-Box and Dunkin' Donuts, and led by Editor Molly Ryan and Associate Editor Brenda Stokes, this year's staff conquered all obstacles in their path to produce Hoofbeats '76. Among the many problems were scheduling photographs, faulty darkroom equipment, an inexperienced staff, and a very limited budget. Working in the friendly atmosphere of S-18, the staff put together this record of North High School. Getting into the spirit, the staff spent countless hours after class to insure a quality book that the school could be proud of. A special thanks to Tomi Fields who was not only a good advisor, but a good friend.

During seventh hour in S-18, frantic shrieks and groans of despair can be heard as the Mustang Roundup Staff scurries to meet another deadline. Despite the staff being totally new at journalism, good pieces of work were produced through the year. In order to cover all aspects of Mustang life, reporters were assigned "beats" that covered the Fine Arts, Editorials, Features, Sports and Organizations. Mrs. Angela Parker, a student teacher, also worked with the staff for a semester and introduced them to basic journalism skills and different types of newspaper layouts. Ads were obtained more easily this year than last year which enabled the Roundup to come out more often.

From a win-loss standpoint, the 1975 North High Varsity football efforts were not crowned with success. Outweighed and outnumbered by all their opponents, they managed a 1-9 record, the lone win coming over Tolleson by a 30-0 score in the homecoming contest. In a number of the games, the Mustangs put up a gallant battle only to be worn down in the late stages of their games by their larger and numerically superior opponents.

Outstanding players were honored with awards given to them by the team. Angel Reynoso, who gained 828 yards in rushing from his halfback position, received the Outstanding Player award. Trent DeBusk was selected as the Outstanding Lineman. DeBusk, along with stellar center Russel Rader, was chosen as Co-Captain. Robert Greenwade was chosen Most Loyal Player.

North High's 1975 Freshman boys lightweight football team completed its season as the only undefeated team in the Phoenix Division, thus it is unofficial City Champions. The team was made up of thirty players and one manager.

Coach Doyle Hardy states that this was the most dedicated group of young men he had had the pleasure to work with. These players found soon after the season began that defense was the name of the game. "Only twice in the year did any team penetrate North's end of the field. Only two touchdowns were scored against them this year.

The team was just that--a team. Although some of the players, such as outstanding runners Tailback Brian Smith and Wingback Tony Villori and the leading pass catcher-scoring end Victor Moreno, gained most of the recognition with the points they scored, this could not have been accomplished without the terrific effort put forth by the quarterback Robert Garcia, fullbacks Rodney Staggers and Robert Carlucci, and tremendous jobs performed by split ends Robert Shivers and Wayne Sublett. The tackles doing a great job were Joe Ayers, Robert Starks, and James Mendoza. Guards Peter Flores, Marvin Smith and Victor Hall performed amazingly against much larger opponents. The team was anchored at Center by Patrick Moody and Mike Redondo.

The "hard hitting" defense team was composed of "sure tacklers" Lonnie Antone and William Juniel at ends; Mario Garibaldi, Joe Ayers, James Mendoza, and Tommy Torres at tackle; and two way Peter Flores at nose guard.

Porter, Switzer named All-Division; Lynn Lawrence leads first girls' team

Boys' Cross Country Team: Standing-Frank Switzer, Jaime Pena, Harry Florence, Stanley Sam, Coach Tate. Kneeling-Andy Porter, Scott Norman, Wayne Henderson, Victor Hernandez.

This was the first year for the girls' cross country. The girls put forth great effort in many hours of training and ended the season with a seventh place ranking in the Phoenix Division and a 404 over-all dual meet record.

Lynn Lawrence, a senior in the number one starting position for the team, had an outstanding season with five first places and a fifth place in the Divisional meet. Cindy Hanse maintained a solid number two spot; however, she managed to tie with Lynn in the last two meets.

Most of the girls will be returning next fall.

The boys' cross country raced to an 8-2 dual meet record and a 10th place in the state meet.

The harriers, under the coaching of new head coach Don Tate, were led by senior Andy Porter and juniors Frank Switzer, Jaime Pena and Scott Norman. Sophomore Steve Sam and varsity lettering freshmen Harry Florence and Wayne Henderson rounded out the relatively young team.

The Mustangs also had a tough Frosh team that won the Phoenix Division Frosh Championship.

Porter and Switzer were picked for the first team, All-Phoenix Division, a team made up of 7 runners from the 12 schools in the Phoenix Division.

1. Frank Switzer was named All-Division. 2. Andy Porter took 6th place in the State Meet. 3. Junior Scott Norman races over the hills. 4. The starting gun sounds. 5. Switzer and Porter show team spirit as they cross the finish line.

North High Cheers led by Nickie Casciaro

The North High Cheers lent pep and school spirit at the football games, basketball games, assemblies, and pep rallies. The girls worked during the summer to perfect their jumps and cheers at a workshop near Thatcher, Arizona. The workshop was attended by girls from schools all over Arizona and New Mexico, and our cheers honored North High by receiving grades of excellent and superior. Under the guidance of Mrs. Davis, the cheers sold candy canes at Christmas to raise money. The cheers were headed by Nicki Casciaro, Captain, and Diane Powell, Co-Captain.

Long practices were held during the summer every morning. The Poms also participated at UofA and P.C. band days. And in the way of fund raising, they sold candy canes along with the Cheers at Christmas time. The Poms were headed by Molly Ryan (captain) and JoAnn Kuhlman (co-captain).

Salopeck coaches girls first year Badminton team

Girls Varsity Golf continues second year

Badminton is a new girls sport that was added this year. Mrs. Salopeck coached the new team. The team's season ended up with no wins. Girls' golf, along with badminton, had a long season. The golf team ended up with only two girls at the finished season. As pictured is Pam Hohu and Ruth Ann Scott. Mr. Morgan stayed with the team until the final match which was the city meet at a south Phoenix golf course.

North had its second volleyball team this year. They were coached by Miss Rosenthal. The varsity team consisted of ten members each. Yvette Becketts served as captain of the varsity team, while Margie Valenzuela served as J.V. captain. "The girls really have done a good job for their second year," replied Miss Rosenthal, "but next year they'll even do better!" J.V. had two victories for the season. The varsity team had a rough season and unfortunately did not win any games.

The 1975-76 Wrestling Team was a lot more successful than the 0-10 record showed. The team gave away 24 points in each dual meet and regularly won 5 or more of the 9 matches they wrestled. The team graduates only 3 seniors: Mike Moses, Mike Sepulveda, Randy Figueroa. They will be missed, but those returning next year will be championship material. Martin Sepulveda coming from behind was the only North wrestler to place in divisional and thus winning a chance at the State Championship.

Seniors you finally made it!!

This year's Senior Class, voted the class of the year, was dedicated in helping North become a better school. The Seniors, spurred by the "Spirit of '76", helped organize the campus beautification program.

Mr. Ferris sponsored the Senior Class, helping them with their many fund raising projects.

There was a comradeship between the Seniors which grew stronger as the year came to a close. They look forward to the future, yet will always remember the past!

Juniors carol for Prom funds

The Junior Class of 1977, aided by sponsors Barbara Rosenthal and Tom Futch, endeavored to raise funds for the prom at the end of the year. In addition to the usual money-makers, candy sales and car washes, the Juniors tried something new. On December 22, class members gathered to sing Christmas carols at neighborhood homes. This novel idea, called a "carolathon" by its inventors, helped to raise money as well as a Christmas spirit.

Freshmen hold meeting

Danny Meyers, President

Ramon Pratt, Vice President

The freshmen class came to North this fall ready for a panorama of new and exciting experiences. First day fears included the unfamiliarity of a new campus, new teachers, and a new group of friends. Once the rooms and names were learned, though, came the excitement of high school life. Freshmen enjoyed the assemblies, the football games, and of course—their new found freedom.

Freshmen were also faced with a barrage of tests. The class of '79 must prove their proficiency in reading, and math.

The class of '79 got off to a solid start with the help of two good sponsors. Mr. Bert Belluzzi and Mr. Howard Shumate helped the freshmen class to build a good foundation for their coming years at North.

N.C.E. evaluated North

The North Central Evaluation team praised North and made recommendations to improve programs and facilities to even better meet the needs of students. The team, made up of teachers and administrators from other high schools and colleges, looks at the school every seven years.

Additional girls' athletics programs (softball, badminton and cross country) were added to the activities in keeping with Title IX. This federal ruling eliminated discrimination on the basis of sex in athletic offerings.

Two teachers, Mr. Wagner (English) and Mr. Henshaw (Math), retired this year.

Bicentennial activities, celebrating the country's 200th birthday, included special flag raising ceremonies, fireworks at Homecoming, and special programs.

North includes fun, friends

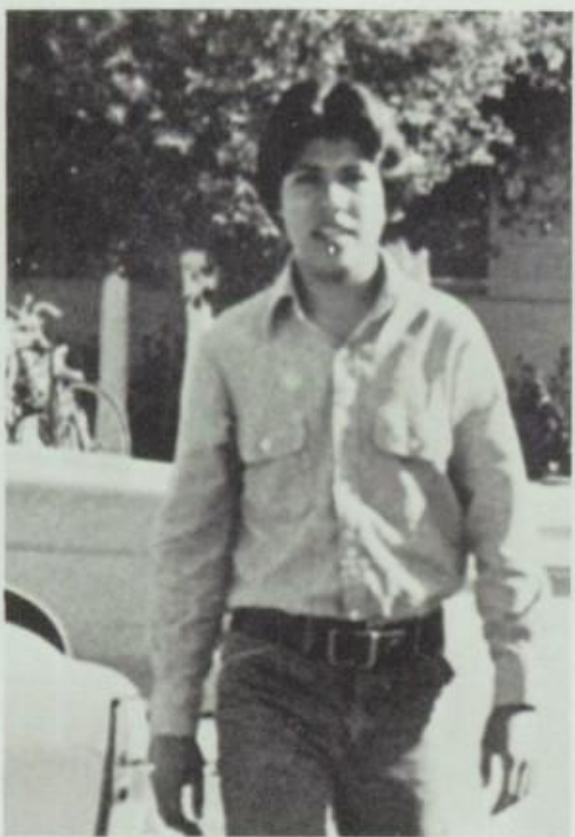

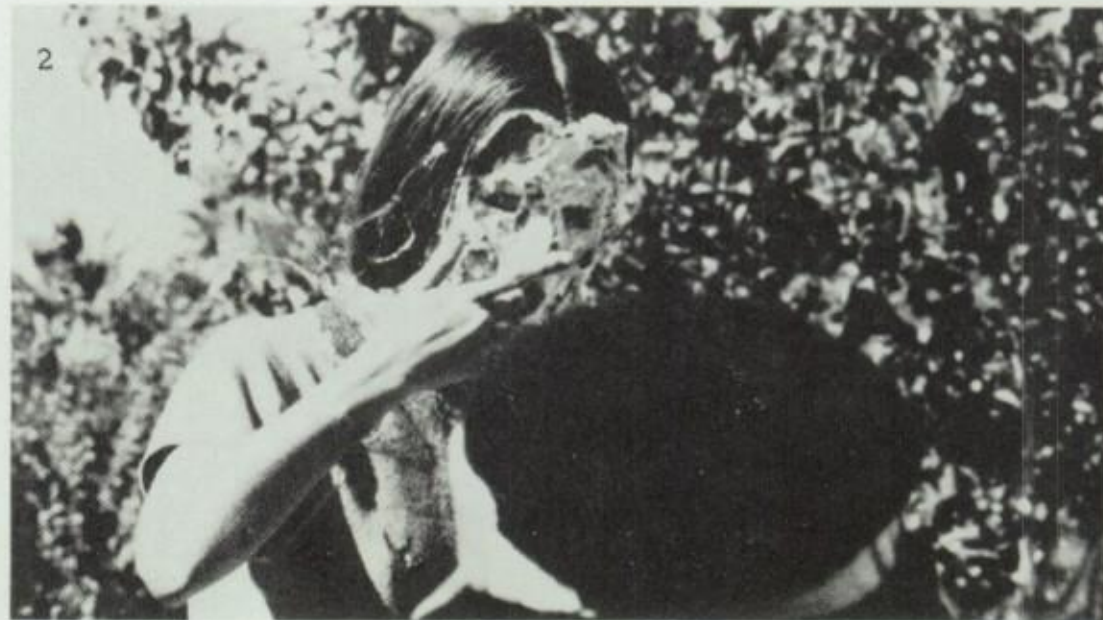

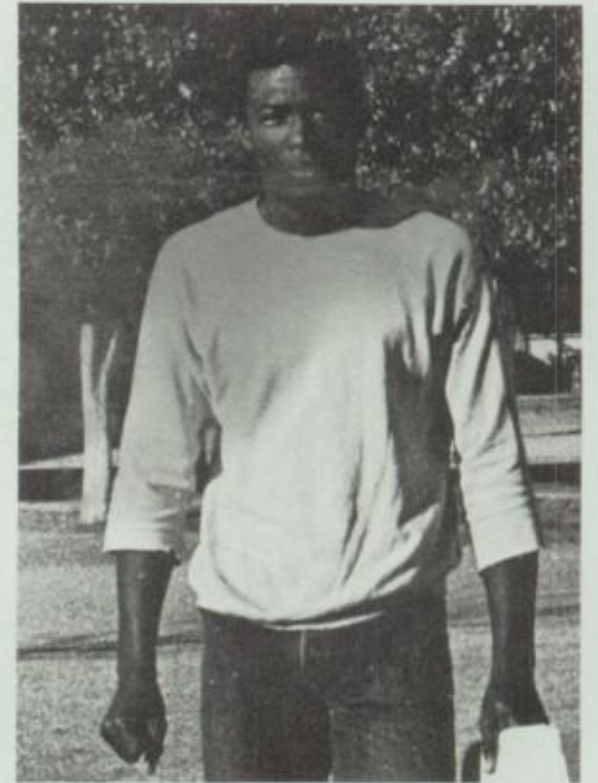

North gets into Spirit Week

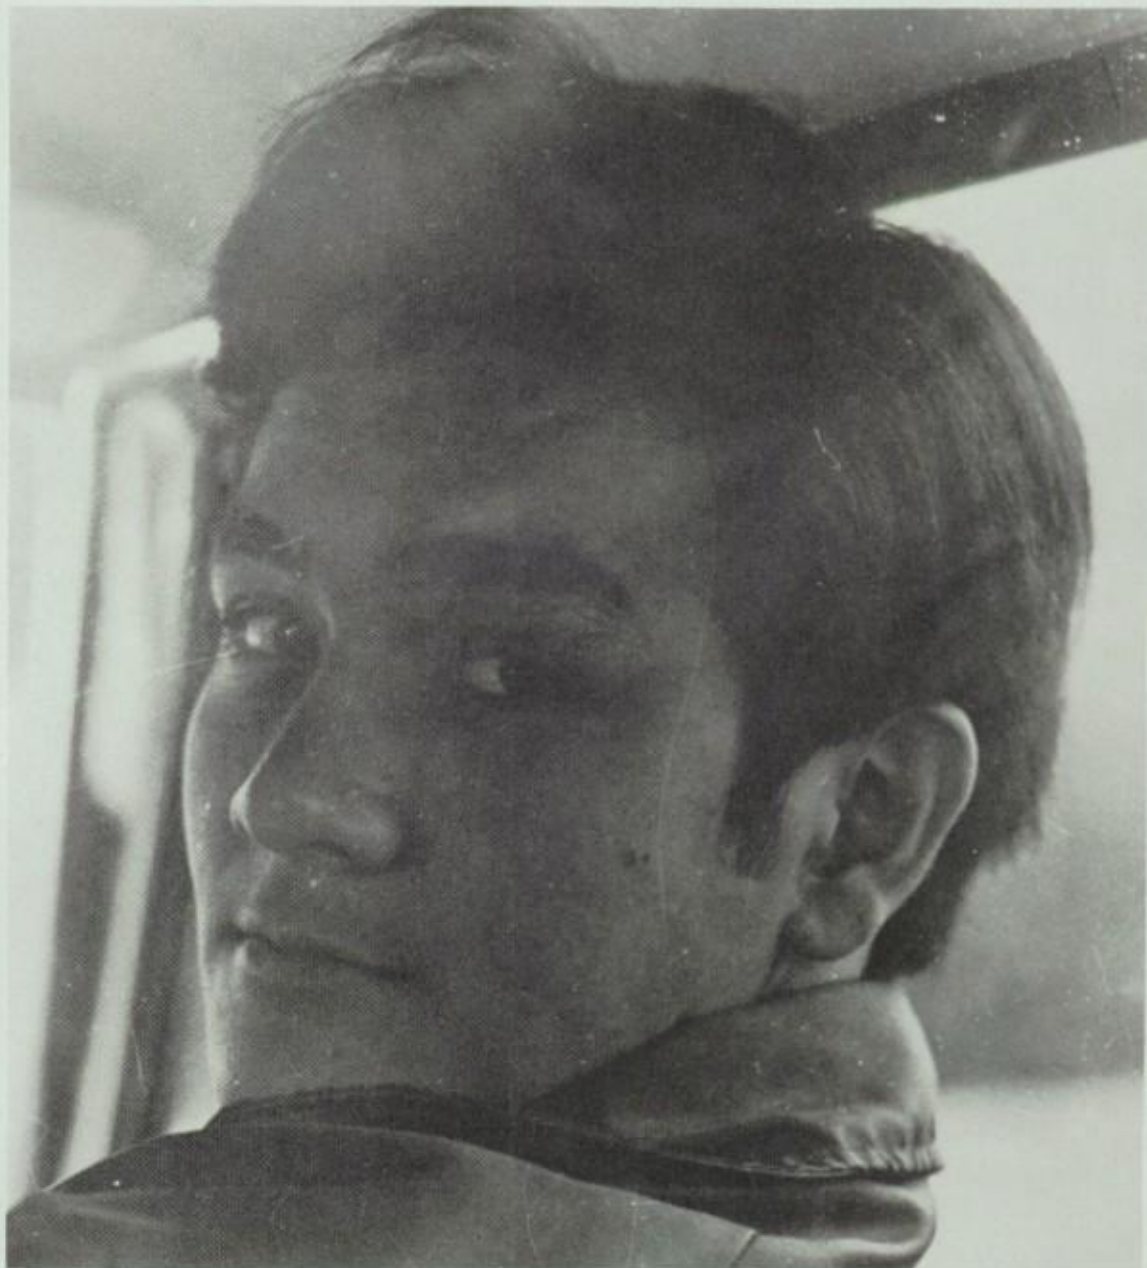

1. Corresponding Secy Brenda Stokes seems to be saying, "Here we go again." 2. Brenda Stokes after being belted by a freshman for the price of $3.00. 3. The fonze (Andy Pederson) with his babe (Pam Thorpe). 4. Scott Harcynski created a lot of spirit as a kweer leader. 5. The seniors struggle to beat the sophomores at tug-o-war. The seniors stacked up the most points during spirit week. 6. "Cool" Andy Pederson captures the look of the '50's. 7. Senior Class President Barry Shannahan just after being hit with four pies. 8. You'll make new friends. And establish contacts with people who have the same interests as you. Expect some fine fringe benefits, too.

To the 1976 Hoofbeats Staff

Yeeeow, what a year! One I'm sure the staff would like to, but probably won't be able to, forget. I would like to thank Moses, Steve (23 weeks for ONE layout, hmmm), Bill, Kenny, Mike "Hornschmock" Sepulveda, Andy, Berty, Joan, and Sivadon for a doing terrific job on the sports section.

"Boogie" Barry Shannahan and Alex Lopez tried to get ads, but unfortunately only wasted a lot of gas. You both worked hard though and that's what counts, so thanks a million.

Darcy, you were terrific to come in at semester and work so hard in the darkroom (pretty much fun, eh?) And to Ruth Ann, Henry, Loretta, and Robi, our photographers at one time or another go my thanks also.

Pam, Patti, JoAnn, Brenda Barry, Kandy, Rochelle, Jane, Lori, Cindy, and Janet worked on layouts and class sections. You all did something almost impossible in yearbook---made your deadlines! Ann and Charlotte did one heck-of-a-great job writing, proofing, and typing copy this year. And thank you too Danny, Sally, Olga and Michelle---I'm not really sure what you did, but you always seemed to be busy.

My extra special thanks go to Brenda Buddy. You worked the hardest, and were a dedicated and talented associate editor. Don't you ever forget cruisin on Monday morning or our four years together on staff. Good luck with Sweetems and don't chew too much Doublemint.

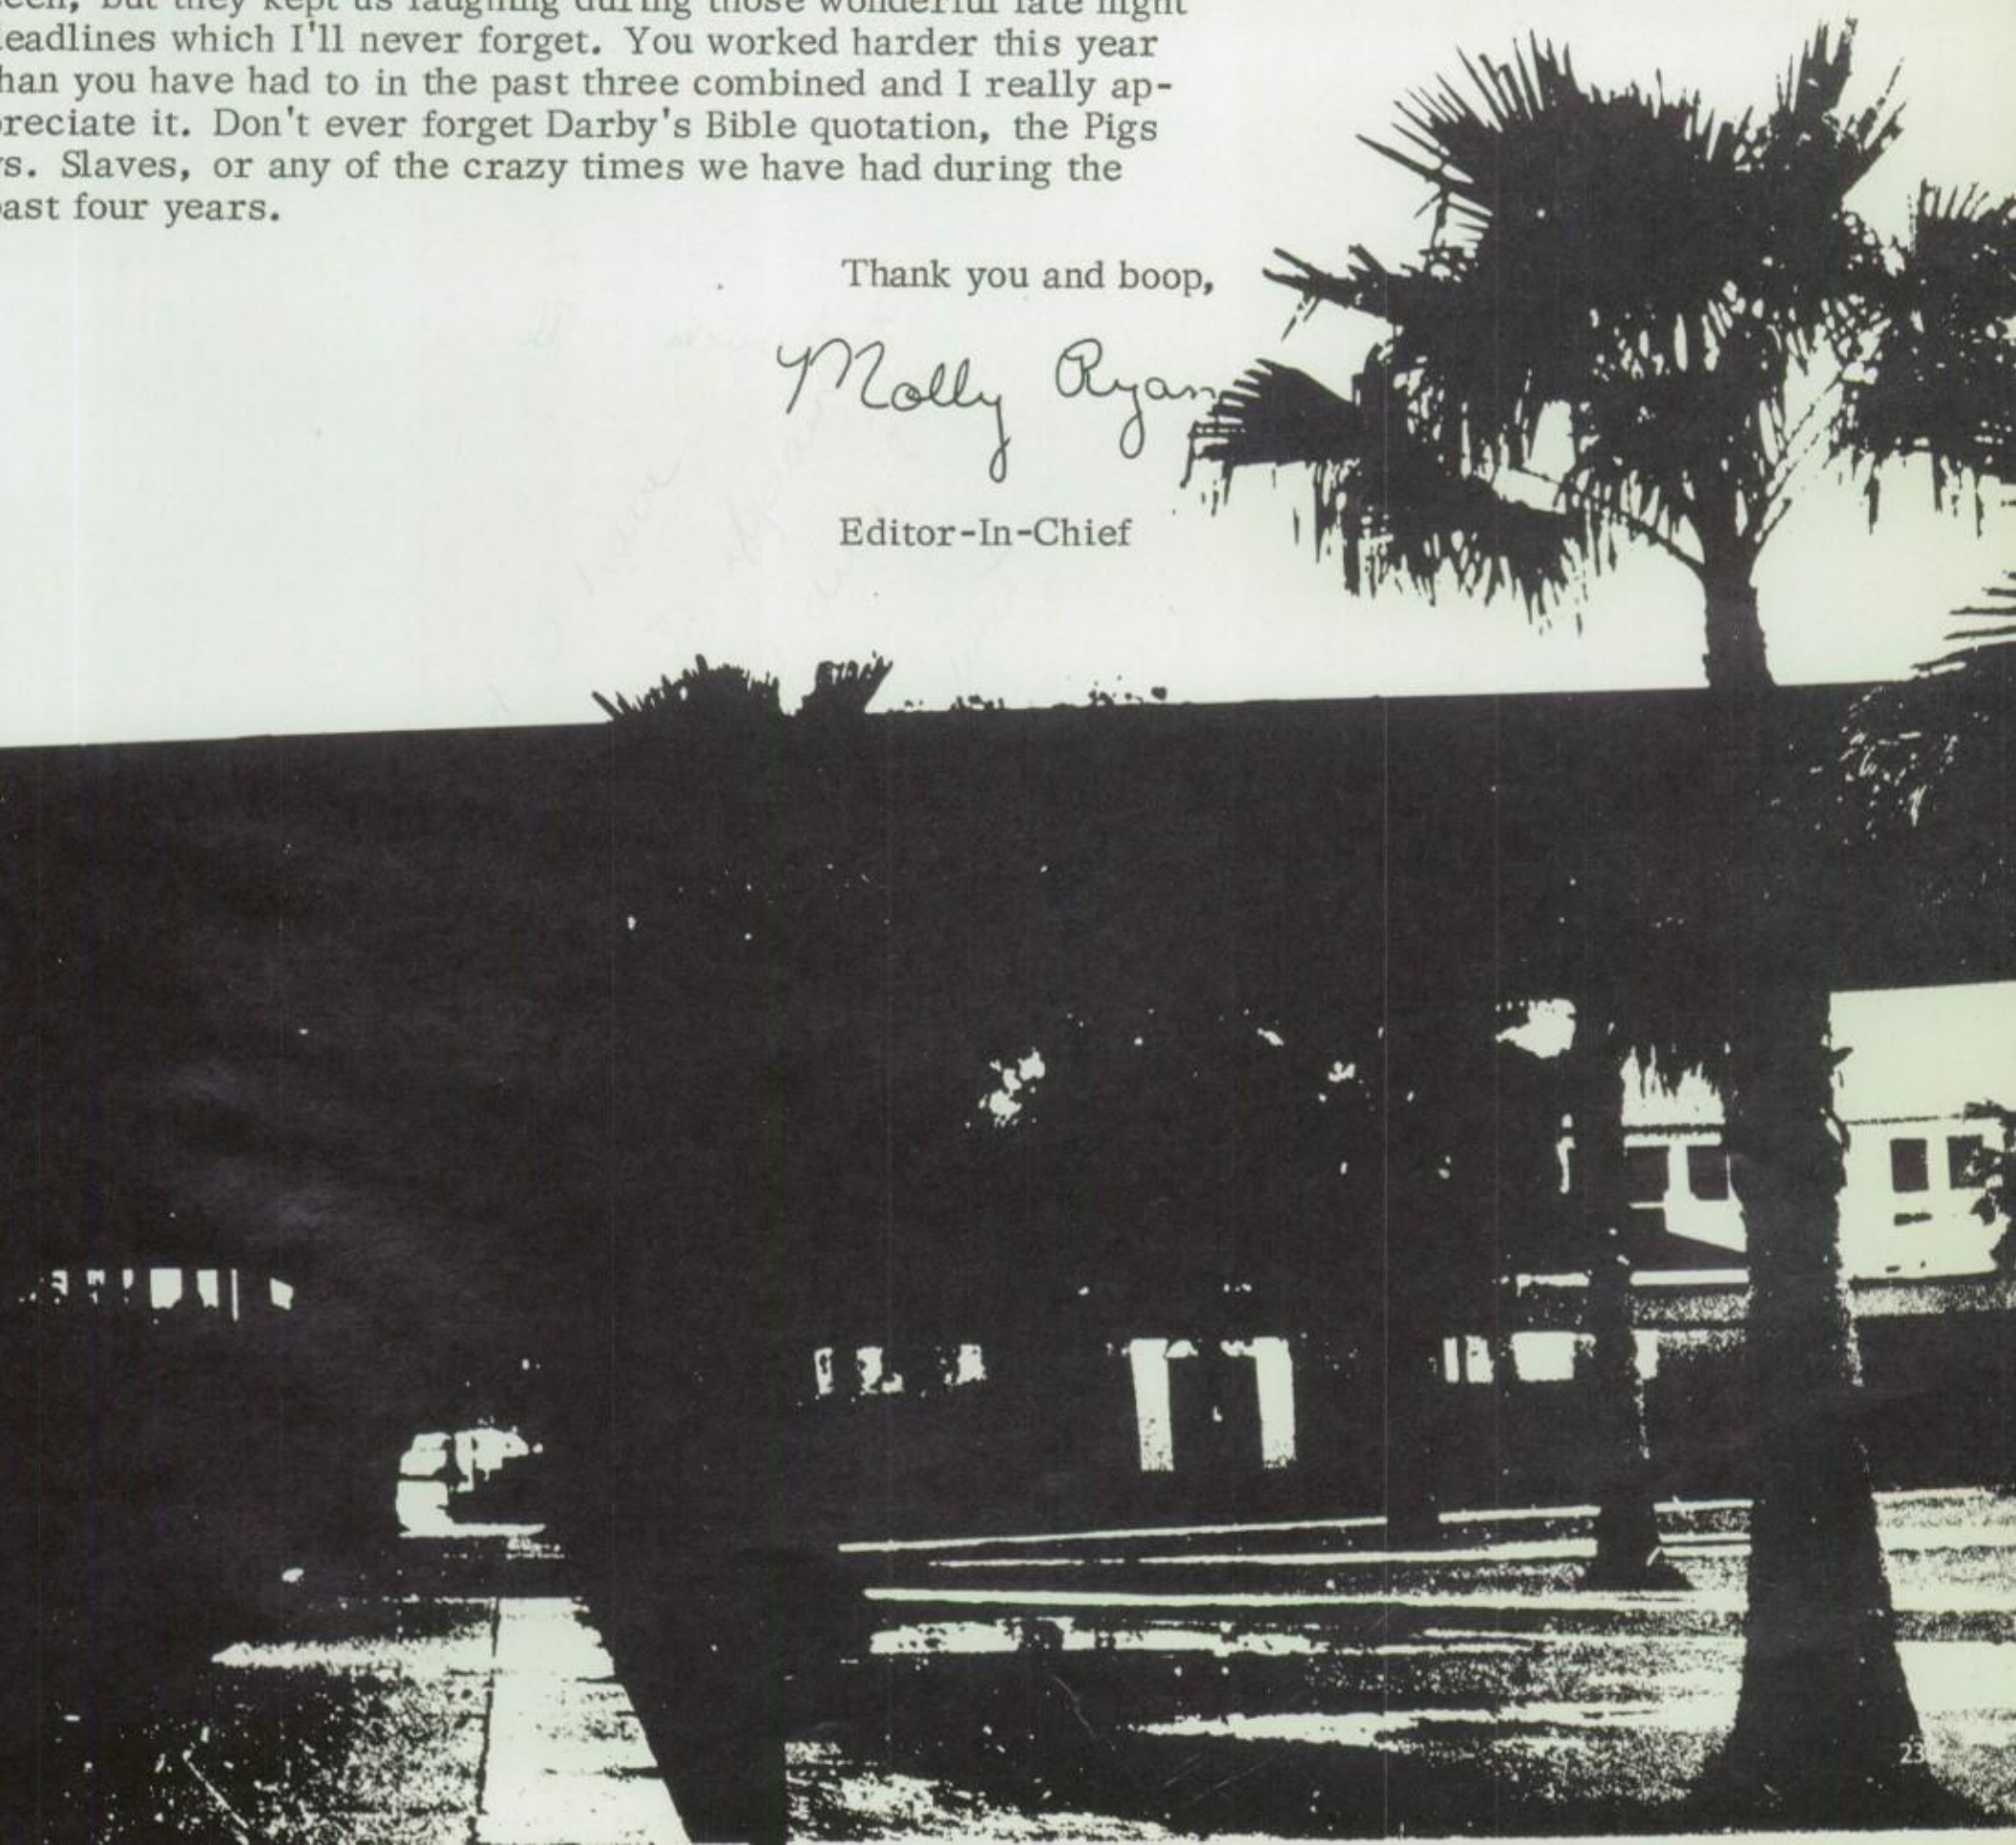

I would also like to thank the editors of the past two years-the Great Nibby, Skipper, Mikey (he likes it) and Hymie. They have had a tremendous influence in S-18 during my years at North by bringing the E.S.G. into my life. Thanks.

To my friend and advisor Tomi Buddy Fields go my deepest appreciation and respect. You make the worst layouts I have ever seen, but they kept us laughing during those wonderful late night deadlines which I'll never forget. You worked harder this year than you have had to in the past three combined and I really appreciate it. Don't ever forget Darby's Bible quotation, the Pigs s. Slaves, or any of the crazy times we have had during the past four years.

Thank you and boop,

Molly Ryan

Marlin:

Last year when I was going with you, you here and me at East. I signed your yearbook with, I wish I was going to North. Then before I knew it, I was here. But, I'm glad, my main reason is because you are here. I think we have done pretty good for the circumstances we're in. We have our times, but we always come out ahead. Thanks for that.

Next year you're going to be a Senior and I'm still here at North. What more could we want.

Love ya' always
Jennie
